Made just for you.

Memories are made at the dining room table

The dining room table is the centre of the home, where celebrations take place and memories are made. Furniturespot.co.za presents their latest designer piece, a minimalistic contemporary oak dining table that can fit in with any interior style.

Dress it up with some funky chairs to bring the look together. With holidays around the corner it's the perfect time to create your ideal entertaining area with the dining room table at the centre of all the festivities. The spacious rectangular design and the clean lines create a warm finish which enables your guests to have a relaxed dining experience.

Looking beyond the festive season, this oak dining table with a stunning 'flower' grain is a versatile piece of your living space. A new piece of furniture can bring life to your space and inspire a new look. Best of all you can choose your finish in silver wash, pecan or white wash. This beautiful table top comes with black powder coated trapezium legs.

This dining room table has longevity with its simplistic design and excellent craftsmanship.

About Furniturespot

Furniturespot is a new and exciting concept that is setting the trend in South Africa. They offer custom-made furniture, inspired, designed, sourced and manufactured by local talent, at an affordable price. The Furniturespot model is designed to respond intuitively to South Africa's design needs and demands, coupled with reputable manufacturers and locally sourced materials together with a fair price. The online platform, launched in 2017, is where South Africans can create exactly the pieces they envisage - custom-made to their specifications. Furniturespot firmly believes that 'local is lekker' and have partnered with Designers and Manufacturers, true craftsmen, who are reputable, reliable and offer first class quality. Being tech-focused, they regularly launch new products, based on global and more importantly, local trends and needs. Let your imagination run wild, instead of being bound by the limits of showrooms. Furniturespot enables you to specify what you want and then, they make sure you get it.

Furniturespot – made just for you. Every ingredient to this spot-on formula, is local. Follow them to keep abreast of their latest designs and creations. For more information visit www.furniturespot.co.za, call 011-486 6006 and find them on social media.
